WEDNESDAY EVENING, FEB. 4.

SCRIPTIONS TO THE EVENING WORLD

CRLD UPTOWN OFFICE-1987 BROADWAY.

LADRIPHIA, PA.-LEDGER BUILDING, II

city will probably affect the patronage be "L" roads to a perceptible extent.

wan this by his action since the agitation

on the public mind

ly, therefore, Mr. JAY GOULD has ing it himself. He has sufficiently pid Transit has taken such a decided control of the Suburban Railroad has him a certain air of supplying some-approximating to Rapid Transit. But sonly the shadow of what is wanted. He

ds. The traveling public is only too thie. The Commissioners have a serious

THE HAND OF PROVIDENCE.

When anything truly good meets with at once sroused. The Staten Island a grief, and as far as can be judged at on surreptitionaly abstracting gum from dropping any pennies into the slot. Hence

The Staten Island Rapid Transit Ratiroad

Company is a truly good institution, and this is so well known that it is doubtful if moved by ordinary feelings would ilty of such wickedness as to do i ry, but yet there is no denying that the o failed to materialize. Here then is a

The good are often chastened, not that they his suffering of the Staten Island Rapid Transit Railroad Company, the hand of

MR. BEATTIE'S PROBATION.

Mr. BEATTIE will have to look to himself.

The women are on his trail. A meeting of the Ladies' Health Protective Association was held yesterday, and they gave their attention to Hans and his dirty

s. It was shrewdly asked whether sly for the cleaning of the streets.

Mr. BEATTIE to bave a month in ee was any connection between the ich to make one supreme effort to purge the municipal thoroughfares? And is ATTIE? Are they?

that month pretty well exhausted? And are the streets clean? Are they, Mr.

There was some talk about cleaning of BEATTIE's retirement? Or is it impossible

There is nothing like know

JERSEY JUSTICE.

A young man charged with the abduction

York Justice that he might run over to Jersay with her, where the age of consent is teen: In New York it is sixteen.

he other way. A New York girl of four-sen should be considered as knowing and ut it is a little strange to see this juggling ith the law concerning marriage. There

As it is, if your sweetbeart is fifteen you cannot marry her in New York, but a few pennics' expenditure and a ride in a ferry-cat across the North River will enable

HARLEM'S TURN NOW.

The man with the shears has reached or neat little "pigtalls" cannot venture

m. Little girls with abundant tresser without the sad possibility of coming se bereft of their locks. The Harlem ier is a burly negro, light of foot, who

the hair and then runs like a deer.

you to marry her in Jersey.

ges are possible.

girls everywhere, and the conditions which uld be greater uniformity. Girls are te their consent to matrimonial union ing just want one has to expect.

tiring. If they are not cleaned ten't it me to mention again the subject of Mr.

ber get clean streets or to get Mr.

ted to marry was paroled by a New would have fancied that it would be nt as a New Jersey one of sixteen of a fifteen-year-old girl whom he had as cheeply conventional and Noah's Arkian.

the apportionment of money made to him with proper meekness.

ing is certain; no matter how severe

ry. What explanation can be offered de better, but because they can suce may be recognized. But one stening may be, it will be borne us been abstracted and the pennice penny-in-the-slot machines without

d Transit Railroad Company is plunged it, its gloom is not likely to be light-

Cer:ain heartless creatures have the greatest care on what is offered.

fibility and should deliberate with iar with them.

Il Aonbiless construct new tracks for the L" to complete a system of transporta interest in preventing it, or in

BAPID TRANSIT.

ELYN—350 FULTON BY. HARLEM—News

betton of Rapid Transit in within a stone-throw of Riverside Drive, do anything. Mr. Monnie K. Jesur asked eld another meeting yesterday, but did not nember of the Commission, and Mr.

SAMUEL D. BARCOCK sent a letter resigning as Chairman. Taking one consideration with another, it was not a very cheerful gathering. Doubtless the expose made ro effect. It would not be a bad idea for the Commission to dishand for all time and the

Now a man has died after drinking seven cups of tea! Yesterday, it was coplous libations of water which killed a man. To day it is "the cup which cheers put it. The passion for drinking water is not so universal as to make the mortality from its excess very when cup after cup is consumed, this present example is sad and harrowing. An afternoon tea with the tea left out is not a wildly gay affair. But in its cupplest form t is not such a delicious delight that one would die for it willingly. Beware the tearesterday the earliest news and best story of the EYRAUD execution at Paris. And it might be added that THE EVENING WORLD was the only evening paper in New York not caught napping by the suddenness with which the execution was sprung. Its story of ETRAUD's beheading and of his crime was the first on the street and the

The new fire-boat, the New Yorker, was

The murderer of little NELLIE GRIFFIN

SPOTLETS.

"This is a put-up job, wa't it?" said Go eing a grandma.

"SUNLIGHT AND SHADOW."

ny sheer lack of lorce, must fall to att to any

At times "Sunlight and Shadow" suggests

In the last act the heetle woman dies mos ends asppliy. If it hadn't been for the hectic woman "Sunlight and Shadow" coulen't have had a stare excuse, and, somehow or other, you distinctly resent the hectic woman

Maurice Barrymore was a characteria le

Mr. Bamfield. Mr. Holland in his unsmitting

There are one or two bright sayings in

"Two souls with but a single thought!"

ugha Mand. "I suppose if I marry Adolphus

t under the microscope and what is it!

"bunight and Shadow" was ushered in by

Call, " by Augustus Tn. mas. ALAN DALE.

WORLDLINGS.

The snakes that Fanny D. renport uses for aspa her pl-y of "Cisopatra" are constrictors. There are five of them, the smallest teng eight and the largest fourteen inches long. Just be ore the actrees resented Beston they and their skins.

The gaming-tables of Monte Carlo paid the stock-hollors $32 a share for the year 1590. The business of the tables has more than quadrupled during the last eighteen years. The suicides numbered eighty-as they are called, are among the most profitable of Long is and's industries.

I shall heve to supply the single thousht."

Erotism dressed up to look like virtue."

absurdity made a nit.

Spulight and Shadow."

Mark Densil, Must Mand Harrison a very pieas morning.

Er. Gould were to furnish them with an was no occasion for her to throw d's ministration to public needs is not reached her, it took two minutes to alip he sch as to commend Mr. Gould as pur- moorings, but better arrangements will enrepor to those needs. Nothing need be able her to break away more quickly here ald about the shortcomings of the "L" after,

When we get Rapi . Transit we want to be was sentenced to State prison for life at it in perfection. There shall be as little He broke down and confessed his crime iks to the benefit it affords as pos- This is pleasingly summary justice.

great. But in this era of afternoon project be quietly dropped.

but not inebriates."

cently in THE EVENING WORLD is having million dollars of the city's money for a mile preferred and a quarter of roadway parallel to and

as Mr. Cowper

One Saturday night when she received

This information stunged her. She went

She was up every morning at 7 o'clock, back to ber lodging-house and for nearly

and although she had no wrap but a light walked the streets of New York from river to river and from the Battery to Murray

Hill in all the rain and slush and snow and cold of the past month without being able

Such a thing as applying to a woman's club, or home, or society for help never occurred to her. She passed and repassed the beautiful building in Fifteenth street ter the stomach-pump and the hospital and

When she appeared in court this un happy boxmaker wore about her an old shawl that the landlady had used as an ironing blanket. She had a pocketbook an it contained five cents of her honest, hard

The home of Mamie Carlton is as pitiable

as her history, yet it is the typical abode of thousands of good little women who de serve better treatment from fortune and neatly 6 o'clock, and owing to the immensraffic at that time of day, the boat became so

Of course the for cannot be remedied; but there crti.in y-boold be a limit to the number of beoth silose; to be carrie done and best and every pleusation taken glinst accid int. Also I loguest that be to steering gear -not be eprovided. The boots in ware almost he p-fier crossing the river. A. READER. Carteret avenue, Jessey City.

Tableaux Vivanta at the Berkeley.

A most lateres ing series of table nx vivanie, arranged by the cleverest aritats of New York.

venings of the 16th and 17th of the month.

Kit-Kat Club, of watch the well-known artist,

Tais Coub is a live organization of young art-workers who constitute to every cla-s of line trated puri cation. They have combined in heir art studies, especially grawing from a mo les. Such an extnest body of workers shoul erkeny outht to be liverally in tron zed.

and Lon Moran, J. Weis Champney, W. L.

VACRANT VERSES.

Witching Finzers.

Fatal the wi chery of campy lingers, his ying mic i would over the keys; How sach care a galy, to make the care. Touching the obscus with exquate case Hearts like oaks would ri-ld to their magic. On lente of one w up have fought ong and

A Wish.

As we were rid ng on the street, A sittle mad and i. What do you t-i.k that we should meet But a hap-dart going oy!

And on it was its golden freight: This latte on he did see it. Said he, "Before I is the late, Let's with, U quick " So Le it.

But then she he wed a little sigh.
And said, "What shell I do?"

The hay-core tast was moving by.

I gained my wish, she now is mine.

My oath, my west, my itte;
Because also did not susues "Nein,"
Now we are man and wite.

Comedy.

They paried, with chaps of hard, And Risse, and be ning tears. They met in a borse n land, After some twenty year.

Met as acquaintances meet.
Sussing, tracqui sey-d.—
Not even the least until beat
Of the heart, upon estner side.

there will arrange the pictures,

Mr. I. H. Dolph, to President.

earned money—the reward of virtue.

two weeks lived on one meal a day.

each time."

Never-Ending Battle with jersey, no rubbers, flannels or gloves, she

With spirit less than infancy One night think that a lecture, with Benjamin Franklin for its subject, might fall a little far, from the fact that so much has been said of this great American and the fact or an angle of the great American and the fact or answer a trembling, often attended to the face or gain their brilliancy, the wesk and exhaust rom the mind, the sure indicator of health. strength and happiness. Dr. Greene' > then took six bottles of Dr. Greene's Nervi it cured me. W. W. CORNEL it cured me. "1024 Ward st., Philadelphia, Pa." "1024 Ward et., Philadelpuis. Fa.

>
> FF Dr. Greme, the successful specialist in curing nervous diseases, 35 West 14th et., New York, > can be consulted free, personally or by letter. Call > or write him about your case or send for symptom or write him about your case or send for symptom blank to fill out, and a letter fully explaining your disease, giving advice. &c., will be returned free.

the Governor's inimitable zero tone, which he Work Begun on the New Fifth Avenue Theatre.

> A Picturesque Synopsis of "Here and Leander."

Work will be begun to-'av on the Fima sy of a supero staircese of Italian marble and onyx that is to coupse any in the dir. The renovated Fifth Avenue will be parallel with Twenty-eightn street, in-tend of with Broadway, as formerly. Many doors will open into Twenty-eighth atreet. The alley which the new building laws calls for will extend from Broadway to the back of the house. Mr. Miner nd his representatives held a conference yea-terisy and evolved a number of plans, the direction of watch tends towards luxury and eleganos.

Here is a picturesque synopsis of "Hero and L sader," the play which Mrs. James Brown Potter and Kyrie Bellew have been presenting in Australia, and now intend to do in London:
"L.- nder loves Hero. He swims the Hellespont guided by a tallow dip placed for that love mating, very questionable for a vertal virg o, i.e swims beck. The second time the dip is removed and Leanuer is extinguished. bring (those who have measured it say fifteen amid residre and transformation effects."

> Harry W. Emme', the sotor and playwright, has gone to Europe on important business con-o raing two of his plays. He is not to return until the middle of May.

If the Commissioner of Public Works on grain permits on to corporations to terrup the streets of the Twenty-t trid and Twenty-lourin Wards, appoint inspectors of the work and ano of the consequent repairs, Mr. Heints sees not care to be held responsible for the condition of such thorough fares.

Among the in-tilutions which were bene-

Mis-Lilly Post sen't singing at all at present.
She is jus doing that which many people ay is woman's mission—traping house for her insband, W. H. Morton.

the other institutions named to contempiate.

I hear that there is some talk that the colleges will be represented in the litigation if things ton, the two comety sillers, are now playing together in Phil despite, for the first time in their stage career. Three weeks see Miss Evesson went South to attend nor mother and avail to secure the sums actually named in the will to these institutions.

Miss Cartinot, the Mrs. flor on of that play, is now ill, and Miss Evesson has been substituted.

help? Do you want boarders ?

Do you want to sell a house? Do you want

Delight the Gentler Sex. Vests Will Re Worn Next Sesson New Spring Embroidery-Evening Dress Overshoes-Care of Patent Leather - Fortune

son. They were warmly indersed by the "swell" trade last Summer, and le ding many seturors are now showing them in great variety and elegant patterns. A Euchre Term

The new embroiders for the next Spring

Telling by Finger Nulls.

sesson will be embroulered leaves with velus glass beads are set between silk-stitch em-Then there are emproideries in silk sites upon the bobbinet, and used for silk wraps, pieces (imitatio : lurquoisce) set betw-eb, are coral or am-thyst color-d "stones" (glass) are also manufactured. Ladt a will nex Spring be verliable lewels (or their imitation).

age wear are quite as delle to and dainty as ne slippers and h if shoes they cover. The soles are very pliable, the heels are high, the mater at is quited, sik lined and edged with swansdown.

the treatment is the same, but the designs run levices of various kinds adorn the hen les. the heads of the tweive disciples ordamenting the handles, which are supposed to e copied from sutnentle portratta. Then here are Tennysonian, Sh.kesierian anmale and female characters. The royal spec eigh centh century, and the salon spoon bean les of the French nouleses

Blazers for women will be much more elab lentifully orn imected with engraved gut but-

Special care is needed to keep patent leather shoes in good shape. In old weather just a slight pressure will crack it; and for this resson I would advise the wearers of it always to the fire-only for a short time an | not too and prevents it from cracking. When or seet wit sympathy rom every lover of sh uld be rubbed to the shale of the loot with not so likely to wro kie and crack in wear, There is nothing more exquisite than good able-ux vivants. These will be as villiant a succe-s as those of last year. Succenfrists as them, ting dull, waite of egg will be found test for

William M. Chase, J. C. riol Beckwith, Percy Mrs. Langiry wears a bracelet of dead gold. with the rame Cleo, atra wri ten in di monde the Christm .s g ft a some od members of ner Tickets, at $2 at leve, may re obtained at the company, and which sae prizes as a sort of Berkeler L. ceum, 19 and 21 W. s. Forty-fourth | talisman.

In the hair shops of London combines are du-niengled and mounted at the rate of 25 cents an ounce.

The Mayor and Mayoress of Manchester gave , 100 ct. lidren from the ra gen schools a diner at the Town Hall, and each coller cetted bright new sixpeuce. Tais is an English ash on that ought to take in New York. There roul s be no difficulty to getting the guests.

Fortune-telling by means of the flager nails onychomancy, as it is called, was not uncommon to anotent times. The prictice was t rob the natis with oil and soot or wax, and to nold up the nails, thus prepared sgatust the -un, and upon the transparent, Lorny auto-stance, were supposed to appear flaures or on racters, which gave the auswer required In more recent times people have been foun presiding by means of the nalls of the nand. and telling the siston of per-ons with certain discriptions of nalls. However a surd it may appear, we shill give examples of this superstition. A person with broad nate is of veutle na ure, simid and bashtul. Those whose nutle grow into the fesh at the points of sides, are given to luxury. A white mark or the nails sespeaks of misfortune. Person with very pale nath are subject to much infirmity of the flesh, and per-scutton y neighpors and freads. People with narrow nath knowledge and liberal sentiment have round nais. In clear people have generally fierny nails. Small natis indicate littleness of mind, baluacy and conceit. Melancholy person

[From the Clothier and Purnisher.] Customer- I want to get some of those roya dusa collars. t lerk—I stone quite understand.
Customer—I mean the kind that will call and the a launary man and not come home croke. I

Lader Our Feet.

Sidewalk-1 was you would go away. Ice-Why? Sidew 14.—Becouse people have been stitling ine ever since you came.

He Knows Her Cooking Mrs. McCrackie-I've not a recipe for her envelope the cashler informed her that | Fads, Fashions and Fanoiss That Efforts of the Caricaturists Re produced Here.

The Left Bower. Could Not Account for It.

Me._Well, you see what a hachelor's enerte

Clara-Did that West-ruer eat dinner wi on?
Tom-No. He ate it with a knife.

Hooray! It this twin, keeps on Pil be millionaire next Somm e!

lie-I don't know what I was doing a ter

A Matter of Denomination.

are now. How would you like to marry the bachel of ? She-Tha won'd depend not on the bache-lor's quarters, in his dulars.

His Nearest Friend.

A Point in Bostonese Grammar.

Re-The P

They obsited of this, and test, it is no bings that make up life; She in a Galostorough bat. And he in biaca for its wife. are distinguished by their pale or I ad-colore n il»; and enoieric, m rital men, delighting i war, save red and spotted nais. Ah, what a c me'y this !
either w a hait, it appears.
Y-t onces e b e it is his kiss.
And once as had an wen'r tours!
— This as Bailey Aidrich. Arguments for Tariff Reformers. A Man We Al Know. Hot shot for the Protectionists will such a devi ish fell was he sum inea, itells you at his conquest by the hour of ar arise wite fell censells us are ea, yield of to the capter ting power inks with fema see a sail the vacuus; in the doy u this keeping sevening. be found in the tables of duties under the McKinley tariff compared with previous duties, published in THE toutom reptim?

Lura (t.e innocent)—O: dear, nel labouille't permit him to until we were ea-The Pink of Perfection.

Chronic Rheumatism

re ommended, without finding any relief what-ever, until I tried Hood's Sarsayarilla. This has have ever taken, and I take pleasure in redone me more good than anything else that I meadure it in the Lighest terms. It has been worth its weight in gold to me." FREDERICE MILLER, Limerick Centre, Pa.

100 DOSES ONE DULLAR.

and serious disorder of the liver and stomach have troub ed me for more than ten years, during which time I have used almost every a

Sold by all druggists. $1; six for $5. Prepared only by C. I. HOUD & CO., Lowell, Man.

pudding that will keep a week.

Gus Williams and John T. Kelly, of the "U and I" comp by have i-sued a very funny eigcular to managers, here are a few quotations from it:

"We will strive on the latest train. Please h ve all the bors, losiers and yellow do a in town mart in at the station to strike us for parses. It will make us feel that we are "in it."

it."

"Can you refer us to a good hotel in your town in it is run by the proprietor and not by the need waiter, and where in actor is treated just as we is as a dot, if not hetier?

"How m my passes is it ensummy for you to issue to the clerky? We are norticular upon the point, as we have noticed that adverse critisms from the pulpit help cusiness very much. a room?

Do you want to sell or buy a business?

Brown as to sell or buy a gently to the company.

Military Night at the Casino. National dags, bunting, etreamers and mili-tary embl ms, w.li be draped and featooned

Do you want to rent a house? Do you want to sell house lots?

On either of these dates this month you can reach 1,000,000 people by putting a little advt. In the great "Want" Directory of The Sunday World. Follow the example set by 782,794 in World.

Transfer and directory are averted during a second and a second a from the lawer loobles to the d me of the

DIAMERICA and dysentery are averted during estains by Monnate's Ing. RING Contrast. 134. *

DEATH, which the girl usually reserved for Sunday. THE WAYS OF WOMAN FAIR, FUN IN BLACK AND WHITE I saw the United St ter Attorney-Gener wandering around the lobby of the Fifth Avenue Hotel the other day. Nobody took the aligntest notice of him, and, indeed, the late Law partner o. the President le not a m in white appearance would ever arouse attention. He

Weak, Nervous and Despendent face, the lower part covered with a scroggy, iron-army beard, walch with his dingy tile, a well-worn and wrink'ed black trock-out and baggy trousers gave him the look of a Rahway farmer or a sag Harvor politician in town for a day to see the sights. Take it all in all, the present Capinet is not remarkable for fine and mpreing specimens of manhood among its The natrons of the States Island Rapid (7) Transit Company prieve sorely because of the s'esting of penales from the automatic . un machines, owned by that corporation. I am told that these pennies were being saved for state of cleanlines and repair, and that as a sequence the passengers will get no relief. The Southern Society, famous for its enter Madison Square Garden on Fen. 21. Expens will not be spared and everything will be done to make the even ng the most delightfu one is the Cinb's history. Of course Mr. S. S. Logan will have much to do with the success of this great American; yet that delivered on list ned to by a large audience, whose interest has done much this year for the success of credit for his efforts. I was told a clever story yesterday in con-I was told a clever story yesterday in con-nection with the recent election of Gov. Hill to the United State S Senate. My informant is a gentleman who was in Albany at that time. a good dector, but only got temporary relief. Iwo ex-Kenators and an ex-Assemblyman, alt of the city, officiously na-tened to the Excutive Cnamber to be the fir t herald of the good news to His Excelency. They found the Governor alone and imperturbable. One of the ex-Senators effusively announced the vote and tendered his congratulations. The Governor bestowed one of his enigmatic looks on the beaming trie and turned, without a word, the new- f" a-ked ine ex-Assemblyman, coming to the rescue of his companions, who were tion. "Yes, you're first," was the reply to sometimes finds occa ion to a opt; and he proper record is made in the Senate and

"Which tends largely to prove," slyly remarked my informant, "that all things come to him who waits, some being unbidden walle others are anticipated. "

J. Pierpont Morgan, the Prince of Wall street binkers, is one of the tallest men in the Avenue Theatre; that is to say, the tearing street. He isn't handsome, but he makes up down of the damaged structure is to be comthey say he lives better than any man in town. | magnificent affa r, and there was talk yester He is an inveterate emoker, and his cigar are of a particular brand of Hevanas that some as high as $40 a hundred. They are big. without one of them between his teeth.

prising. Two adjoining clothing stores near appear to a cesual observer like one and the appear to a cessal observer like one and the same store; instead, they are bitter rival. Resiliting this, one of the proprietors recently hung tale size before his door: "Mais Entrance." Cus omers fairly crowded into his door until a few days ago, when his rival suddenly flashed a glaring red size over his door, reading. "Only Katrance." The other way. reading: "Only Entrance." The other merchant is now busy thinking out a new scheme to get back his cus omers .

nost-lry in Greensboro, N. C., has been making a flying vi-it to New York. He is thgentleman who ord red glass for his own bus Though a mietak-, it shows that he is a man of gigantic enterprise, and he tells me he now contemp ates ord rin : an omnibus to ft the glass. He says Greens oro is both booming and prost erous, but they can't get snough copies of THE EVENING WORLD. nexed District, and Commissioner of Public Works (silroy di) not en age in an unseem y vastrel over a question of jurisdiction over use treets in Commissioner Hentz's territory, it am informed that the Commissioner above the Hartem is far from satisfied with the air us ion. iariem is fa- ir m satisfied with the ai ua ion.

Among the in-ti-utions which were bene-Payerwest er. Yale comes in for the largest ing to $800,000, which will be argely increased hould the will be su-t-ined and the agreeshould the will be su-trined and the agreement of the executors with rezard to the residue of the executors with rezard to the residue of the estate be cirried out. The property of the state of the state of the state of the confect of the state of the the o her institutions named to contemplate.

Do you want anything ? Do you want a situation? Do you want

Do you want

"Wants" last year.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

OVERCROWDED FERRY-BOATS. Throngs of Passengers Endangered Especially in Foggy Weather. ott . Editor Permit me to call your attention to the way ferry-boats on the North River are overcrowded

NELL NELSON.

during the heavy fogs.

I was obliged to cross on the Central Rat ond Ferry Thursday night last, as I do every medicines, roast coffee and pop corn, braid day. I arrived at the terry in time for the 5.18 . M. boat, out as the rules of the ferry seem be that only one boat shall be crossing at a time during fog., they nold two out of three fore the 5.38 bout did not leave the sip till society.

rowd d that there was scarcely room to stand duced, and from a third to three-fourths of n the truck passageways. the hands are laid off. Given a home with the sheltering and proanch a time ther- would certainly be a papie tecting love of parents, relatives and friends, and the suffering among these girls ably sever-1 people would get ki led. Saouid is most distressing; but when the laborer out occur there would doubtless be a loss of starves, and where, is best illustrated by a recent case brought to public notice by the done for her, This is not a reference to Nicolini, but to her physician, Dr. Love. In her case Love Disc Debar has joined a comedy troups to play it. 'Out of hight," 'I be thought that Disc Debar out see how her wretchedness could be in-

The parament was smooth as periabed giase, Pedestrians first to the street,
With the exception o one sittle last
Who sees of to man inith in her fret.
Her pathw y lay down a nearry grade, floon a servent muoneded a wilri;
When I picked the up the sweetly said:

"I'm only a slip of a gir."

—Pitteburg Dispatch. With the experience that knowledge and To give a Fair Show to Uhlougo costs a good de-

$5.50 a week. that "bear on their face the mark of the man-militaer of Paris." Does Worth put his mark on the Bernhardt is as proud of her succession home comforts and the bitter co.d of a Northern Winter. French justice has got a head of Eyrand The World's Fair ought at least to be this coutry's Fair. It is our fair held in Chicago.

back. It had no fire, no carpet, no ventilation A very mild and unassuming little play and no light but what a painted window 1,250 Broadway.

ton, was presented at the Madison Square It would have been impossible to get a Coatre last night. It is the sort of play that, family dining-table into the room without taking it apart. great popularity. Nobody could possibly tie-Her bed consisted of a canvas cot, covlike it, for it is pretty, but notody could, on se of salaries for his assistants and the other hand, feel for it any very ficroe apcentre by age and we r. There were no blankets on it. The pai Jerome E. Jerome's "Bunset," and you can of shoddy comfortables had considerably believe that three ac's of "Sanert" Would > are two sisters; the former pensive, the latter noydenish. Helen loves Mark Denxil; Mand, -the girl's dressing case, containing a few Mr. Bamfield. Something had to be done to relieve this awfully commonplace condition collars, and above it hung a looking-glass of things, so a h-otic woman spects to the the size of a spelling hook. garden and behaves very mysterionsly. On the which a right angled triangle had been eliminated. conveniently and counider tely. Everything That was all. There was no closet, for the girl had no clothes. There was no light but that furnished by a hanging kerosens lamp, and the air that was admitted through the cracks in the door was perfumed with cheap coffee and bad tobacco. Here the girl slept at night. Here on ing Helen, Miss Miller extremely effective as Mand, and E. M. Holland highly successful as Sunday she spent her only hours of leisure > mission on earth was After paying her rent she had $3 left. Her laundry bill was 10 cents a week, so you fastidious, sybaritic renders can guess, per

At night she walked home, but in the morning she took the car to the shop-"10 keep her feet dry," as she said, for her comedy sketch, en tilet "A New Year's shoes were poor and her stockings thin.

> groceries taken into the house. Cooking was out of the question, there being n fire, but "having things to cat around brought rats" the landlady said, and no parcels were allowed to go upstairs. The girl ate where she could. He breakfast cost 10 cents; she paid five cents

Her own words on dining are not with New York and Brook'yn consume daily about out interest, as they show the unseen side of woman's life. "I went to my dinner very slowly. There

It is time for these rascals to be run down.

The Harlem police have an opportunity to show whether they are any better than the mustache have made him one of the most striking bed.

Individualities in the Chamber of Deputies. He has "I hunted all over the city for cheap cating places. They were all warm and nice, The ink used in the office of the Boston Register but I was always hungry and wanted more commission appointed to consider used in the office in 1700, and is said to be proof inability of spending four or five against feding. than I could afford to Luy."

bearing the words, "Young Women's of the shopgirl. Its charming simplicity Christian Association " over the door. She has been described in prose and verse, and also passed the family home of the Rhine artists and illustrators have made delightlanders in Washington square, and had no more thought of entering one than the other. Laudanum followed desperation, and af publicity came friends.

to get employment, ful pictures of its interior. There are always soft muli curtains gathered across the window sash; there is a pot of roses or mignonette on the sill and generally a robin or a swallow near by feasting on the reserve crumbs of a French roll. The tidy room, with its Whistler prints, table scarf and Dutch candlestick is pretty enough as a sketch. It is fanciful and all that, but elongs the credit of bringing to New York it is false. It does not exist. At least not to be relieved from further service as a Hell Melson Tails of the Hopeless she would have to la, off until Spring.

S ruggle for Bread.

Poverty and Starvation.

Mamie Carlton's Pitiable Story as

Sample of Thousands of Others.

Much has been written about the home in New York. The girl who designs for Tiffany, who teaches in Mrs. Thurber's Conservatory, o fills teeth for a Madison avenue dentist, may live in an seathetic attic atmosphere such as the gifted and idealistic Souvestre describes. but the girl that Commissioner Carroll D. Wright studies for labor statistics is differ most complete narration of the events ently situated. printed in this city yesterday or this These little women curl feathers, spin thread, silk, jute and varn, roll cigars and cigarettes, make pencils, neckties, tags, clothing, boxes, umbrellas, toys, artificia run out last night for the first time. A lot flowers, buttons, brushes, yeast, whips and It is the duty of the Commissioners of or oil was on are at the foot of West Fifty novelties ; they sew, set type, stencil, print, id Transit to have a very sharp eye on second street. Before the fire-boat arpack, weave straw and cane: they wran as well as any other scheme. Even if rived the flames were under coutrol, so there candies, dip matches, split toothpicks, mix alluring and apparently satisfactory scheme atream on the fire. She was all primed to rope, sert rags and pick feathers, which, aid Transit the character of the "I." do so when she arrived. After the slarm according to the very best authority, yields an average income of $365 a year. Five dollars and a half is considered fair wages for these daughters of industry, but at the end of every season the forces are rehas been discovered, and within six bours > is alone and work is withdrawn, her condition is lamentable, Just bow she lives and suffers and desperation of an unfortunate victim of our The girl had been taught tailoring in he youth, but found the work too hard, and as a means of support took up feather work. quills; she steamed and dried them, and by and by curied the feathers, for which service of fifty bours she received $2. She did not married a good-for-nothing. At the age of twenty-one she found she was again ale ne, her bables dead and the recreant husband equally remote.

sorrow brings she began life all over again in a cigar-box factory, where she received She repted a "furnished " room for which she paid $2.50 a week, and there she lived. or tried to live, suffering the privations of

Her surroundings were those of tens of thousands of New York women. Her room was the top floor middle, lacking the ele-salled "Sunit, ht and Shadow," by R. C. Car- admitted from the hal'.

more weight than warmth, and to be gener not have been exhibitating. Heren and Vand ous the sheets were white. At the head of this bunk was a cigar-bo

The washetand comprised the furniture of astant Mark Denzii recognizes her as his the room. On it was a disabled water jug. wile and goes in for a dash of agony, as he re-members Helen can no longer be his.

which a right angled triangle had been mending her miserable clothing and wondering why she was alive and what her haps, the extent of her wardrobe. "In ependence!" scuffs Dr. Latimer. "Put This reduced ber income to $2.60. The landiady would not allow any for her lunch, and 15 cents for dinner.

was nothing to hurry home for. The later I got to my room the earlier I would go to

That left 40 cents of the week's salary